Step 2: Checking for Funder Mandates

IEEE understands that certain authors may have specific requirements that must be satisfied to remain eligible for funding. To assist you in meeting these requirements, please indicate below if your paper has been funded in part by an organization that carries a deposit mandate.

If your work has been funded by an organization on the list below or if you are a student or staff at a UK-based university, please select the appropriate label. You will then receive additional instructions on the steps needed to fulfill your requirements after the agreement is signed. If your organization is not on the list, please select "Not affiliated with any group on this list".

Not affiliated with any group on this list

Funded by UK Research and Innovation (UKRI)

Funded by Wellcome Trust

Funded by National Institute for Health and Care Research (NIHR)

UK University Staff/Student (unspecified funder)

What is a funder or research mandate?

Funders may require that grantees make their peer-reviewed publications publicly available by, for example, depositing a particular version of the work within a sanctioned repository.

IEEE has partnered with a selection of funders to assist with the process by providing authors instructions based on their specific mandate.

UK university staff and students that have unspecified funding and are required to adhere to posting mandates should select the "UK University Staff/Student (unspecified funder)".

Employment status = copyright status

An author's copyright status is determined to a large extent by the type of employer for whom the author works. For example, if you are employed by the U.S. Government, and you are the sole author of your paper, then you should select "Employed by United States Government."

Similarly, if you are the sole author and you are employed by a Crown Government (or if you and all your coauthors are Crown Government employees), then copyright to your paper will remain with the Crown Government. You should select "Employed by a Crown Government."
